Periodic review of case

Sec. 2. (a) The court shall hold a formal hearing:

(1) every twelve (12) months after:

(A) the date of the original dispositional decree; or

(B) a delinquent child was removed from the child's parent, guardian, or custodian;

whichever occurs first; or

(2) more often if ordered by the juvenile court.

(b) The court shall determine whether the dispositional decree should be modified and whether the present placement is in the best interest of the child. The court, in making the court's determination, may consider the following:

- (A) the date of the original dispositional decree; or
 - (B) a delinquent child was removed from the child's parent, guardian, or custodian;
- whichever comes first; or
- (2) more often if ordered by the juvenile court.
- (b) The state must show that jurisdiction should continue by proving that the objectives of the dispositional decree have not been accomplished and that a continuation of the decree with or without modifications has a probability of success.
- (c) If the state does not sustain the state's burden for continued jurisdiction, the court may:
- (1) authorize a petition for termination of the parent-child relationship; or
 - (2) discharge the child or the child's parent, guardian, or custodian.

- (1) review a foster care placement at the juvenile court's request; and
- (2) file a report, including findings and recommendations, with the court.

(b) If the juvenile court believes the contents of a confidential report or document would benefit the review board, the court may provide the review board with an order authorizing disclosure of the document to the review board. The review board may not disclose the contents of a confidential report or document to a person who is not allowed disclosure by the court or by statute.

(c) If the child's legal settlement has changed, the court shall issue an order that modifies the court's findings of fact concerning the legal settlement of the child.

(d) If the court has not previously made findings of fact concerning legal settlement as provided in IC 31-37-19-26 the court shall make the appropriate findings in the court's order entered under this chapter.
